RALLY DAY

For our Rally Day program on Sunday, September 10th, Roger Elliott displayed his handiwork and reminisced about the process of creating original Christmas cards each year for some thirty years. We were inspired to create an original card ourselves! For 28 years, Roger and his wife Jane were members of WPC. Roger taught at CVCC as an Associate Professor of Art. Retiring in 2000, they moved to Afton, VA, where they are members of Rockfish P.C. Their two sons, Ken and Tim, respectively live in Greensboro, NC and Juno Beach, FL. We were so glad to have them visit with us again.

Our Pulpit Guest, Margie Anderson (pictured on the left), told a story about “gifts not loans” to the children during the Children’s Moment on Sunday, September 24th. We give gifts not expecting something in return.
